Section 1. Definition of Terms. As used in the rules and regulations, the terms below shall mean except when the context indicates otherwise, as follows:

- Book. As defined by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), it is a printed non-periodical publication of at least forty-eight (48) pages, exclusive of cover pages, published in the country and made available to the public.

However, in order to satisfy the intent of the Book Act in the light of modern information technology and for purposes of enjoying the tax and duty-free status of imported books, this definition shall include: (1) children's books which may be less than forty-eight (48) pages; (2) children's educational comics; (3) books, which is a combination of a book and a comic; (4) scientific, cultural, medical, architectural and professional magazines; and (5) book catalog.

- Textbook. A book which is an exposition of generally accepted principles in one (1) subject, intended primarily as a basis for instruction in a classroom or preferences, attitudes and reading habits of Filipinos; and

- consultation with all segments of the book industry;

Section 2. Components of the Plan. The National Book Development Plan shall have the following components and/or requisites:

- provisions for strong and effective mechanisms for book development in the country;
- provisions for producing books or other periodicals, such as appropriate or selected comics as instructional or teaching materials for such various categories of readers in the country as preschool children and school children, school dropouts, neoliterates, the handicapped, professionals, general readers, and ethnic groups;
- measures for addressing the needs and problems of the book industry as indicated in the surveys conducted;

- measures designed to redress the imbalance between demand of good books and other reading materials and the supply thereof in different parts of the country;
- measures to secure to authors adequate compensation for copyrights and other intellectual property rights;

- guidelines for ethical practices in the book trade; and

- a human resource development program for book personnel.

Rule IV

Governing Board

Section 1. Creation of NBDB. To implement the Book Act, a National Book Development Board (NBDB) is created, herein referred to as the Board. It shall operate under the administrative supervision of the Office of the President. It may convert itself into a corporate entity when it meets the criteria for the creation of government corporations, subject to the approval of appropriate authorities.

The Board shall be composed of a Governing Board and a Secretariat.

Section 2. Composition of the Governing Board. The Governing Board shall be composed of eleven (11) members who shall be appointed by the President of the Philippines, as follows:

- Five (5) representatives of the government to be chosen from the Department of Education, Culture and Sports;

local industrial complex for the book industry sector and other special projects such as but not limited to local and international book fairs, exhibits of publishing equipment and technology and book informational technology exchange networks;

- adopt rules and regulations to ensure that prices of books shall be affordable and within reasonable levels commensurate to the quality;

Section 2. represent and/or gain leverage for the book industry sector by being a member of the negotiating panel relating to negotiation between other government entities like DECS and the domestic or international financial entities on matters affecting books; and

- exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be required by law.

Rule V

NBDB Secretariat

Section 1. NBDB Secretariat. The Board Secretariat provided under section 9 of the Book Act shall be composed of functional offices that the Board may create.

Section 2. Functions and Responsibilities of the Secretariat. The Secretariat shall have the following major functions and responsibilities:

- Prepare an annual report for submission through its Executive Director to the Governing Board at the close of every calendar year, and other reports the Governing Board may require within given periods;

- Prepare an annual budget and such supplemental budgets as may be necessary for submission through its Executive Director to the Board for its consideration and approval;

- Facilitate the formulation, adoption, and implementation of a National Book Policy and the corresponding National Book Development Plan;

- Coordinate with DECS, CHED, TESDA, and other concerned units regarding curricular concerns like the guidelines, rules and regulations in preparing learning competencies, prototypes, and other specifications for books and related instructional materials;

- Provide information, education-training, communication, and advocacy of the progressive growth of the book industry;

- Gather and organize data on book publishing, book people, and establishments; plan and conduct studies; and researches designed to improve the book publishing industry;

- Register and classify persons and enterprises engaged in book publishing; and encourage their meeting the set publishing standards;

Section 3. The Board shall monitor and conduct an annual evaluation of the progress of the shift of functions related to the privatization of the DECS textbook provision program;

25th Anniversary

ST. CLARE'S MEDICAL CENTER

CITY OF MAKATI
METRO MANILA, PHILIPPINES

M E S S A G E

I am pleased to convey my sincerest congratulations and best wishes to the St. Clare's Medical Center on the occasion of its 25th Anniversary.

The St. Clare's Medical Center is a respected private health institution in Makati. It has played a significant role in addressing the medical and emergency needs of the people of Makati and nearby environs side by side with the official city hospitals and medical and health institutions financially subsidized by the City government.

with the wonderful preparations being made by dedicated men and women of St. Clare's Medical Center and its friends and supporters. I am confident it shall have a truly memorable celebration this year.

ST. CLARE'S MEDICAL CENTER INC.

St. Clare's Medical Center celebrates its twenty-fifth anniversary on May 1, 1997. As a pioneering hospital in the City of Makati, it has evolved from a modest family medicine-oriented hospital to a multi-specialty health care institution. Its sphere of influence now encompasses parts of Manila Pasay, and even Mandaluyong.

Twenty eight years ago, Dr. Dionisio P. Lirio and the late Engr. Leopoldo C. del Rosario talked about their common dream of providing its services to include physical therapy and occupational therapy. It acquired its own ultrasound equipment and upgraded the capabilities of its intensive care unit (ICU). It refurbished its pediatrics department and renovated its patient's rooms to reflect more modern tastes. Recently, it organized its own CT-Scan Facility and bought a GE Imagemax II CT-Scan unit.

In 1996, the hospital's name was changed to St. Clare's Medical Center. This new name, according to the Lirio and del Rosario children, embodies accurately their vision of a
