AN ACT
DECLARING THE MARITIME ZONES UNDER THE JURISDICTION OF THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

1           SECTION 1. Short Title. – This Act shall be known as the “Philippine Maritime 2 Zones Act”.

3           SEC. 2. Maritime Zones. – The maritime zones of the Philippines comprise the 4 internal waters, archipelagic waters, territorial sea, contiguous zone, exclusive economic zone
5 (EEZ) and continental shelf. All territories of the Philippines shall generate their respective 6 maritime zones in accordance with international law.

1           SEC. 3. Archipelagic Baselines. – Archipelagic baselines, as used in this Act, refer 2 to the baselines as defined under Republic Act No. 9522, otherwise known as the “Philippine 3 Archipelagic Baselines Act of 2009”.

4           SEC. 4. Internal Waters. – The internal waters of the Philippines, as appropriate, 5 refer to the following:

6           (a) Waters on the landward side of the archipelagic baselines not forming part of 7 archipelagic waters under Section 5 of this Act and delineated in accordance with Article 50
8 of the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS); and

9           (b) Waters on the landward side of the baselines of the territorial sea of territories
10 outside of the archipelagic baselines, drawn in accordance with Article 8 of the UNCLOS.

11           The Philippines exercises sovereignty over its internal waters and the airspace over it 12 as well as its seabed and subsoil in accordance with the UNCLOS and other existing laws and 13 treaties.

14           SEC. 5. Archipelagic Waters. – The archipelagic waters of the Philippines refer to 15 the waters on the landward side of the archipelagic baselines except as provided for under 16 Section 4 of this Act.

17           Within the archipelagic waters, closing lines for the delineation of internal waters shall 18 be drawn pursuant to Article 50 of the UNCLOS and other existing laws and treaties.

19           The Philippines exercises sovereignty and jurisdiction over its archipelagic waters and 20 the airspace over it as well as its seabed and subsoil in accordance with the UNCLOS and 21 other existing laws and treaties.

22           SEC. 6. Territorial Sea. – The territorial sea of the Philippines refers to the adjacent 23 belt of sea measured twelve (12) nautical miles from the baselines of the territorial sea as 24 determined in accordance with the provisions of Part II or Part IV of the UNCLOS as 25 appropriate.

1 The Philippines exercises sovereignty over its territorial sea and the airspace over it as 2 well as its seabed and subsoil in accordance with the UNCLOS and other existing laws and 3 treaties.

4 SEC. 7. Contiguous Zone. – The contiguous zone of the Philippines refers to the 5 waters beyond and adjacent to its territorial sea and up to the extent of twenty-four (24)
6 nautical miles from the baselines from which the breadth of the territorial sea is measured.

7 In accordance with the UNCLOS, the Philippines exercises control over this zone 8 necessary to:

9 (a) Prevent infringement of its customs, fiscal, immigration, or sanitary laws and 10 regulations within its territory or territorial sea; and

11 (b) Punish infringement of the above laws and regulations committed within its 12 territory or territorial sea.

13 SEC. 8. Exclusive Economic Zone. – The exclusive economic zone (EEZ) of the 14 Philippines refers to the waters beyond and adjacent to its territorial sea and up to the extent 15 of two hundred (200) nautical miles from the baselines from which the breadth of the 16 territorial sea is measured, as established by Presidential Decree No. 1599, otherwise known 17 as the “Philippine Exclusive Economic Zone of 1978”, and to the extent consistent with the 18 other provisions of this Act and with the provisions of the UNCLOS.

19 In accordance with the UNCLOS, the Philippines exercises within its EEZ the following 20 rights:

21 (a) Sovereign rights over this area for the purpose of exploring and exploiting, 22 conserving and managing the natural resources, whether living or nonliving, of the waters 23 superjacent to the seabed, and the seabed and its subsoil, and with regard to other activities for

1 the economic exploitation and exploration of the zone, such as the production of energy from 2 the sun, water, tide and wind; and

3 (b) Jurisdiction with regard to: (i) the establishment and use of artificial islands, 4 installations and structures; (ii) marine scientific research; (iii) the protection and 5 preservation of the marine environment; and (iv) other rights and duties provided for in the 6 UNCLOS.

7 SEC. 9. Continental Shelf. – The continental shelf of the Philippines comprises the 8 seabed and subsoil of the submarine areas that extend beyond its territorial sea throughout the 9 natural prolongation of its land territory to the outer edge of the continental margin, or to a 10 distance of two hundred (200) nautical miles from the baselines from which the breadth of 11 the territorial sea is measured, where the outer edge of the continental margin does not extend 12 up to that distance.

13 Continental shelves extending beyond two hundred (200) nautical miles from the 14 baselines shall be delineated in accordance with Article 76 of the UNCLOS.

15 The Philippines exercises sovereign rights to explore and exploit the mineral, 16 petroleum and nonliving resources of the seabed and subsoil and living organisms belonging 17 to the sedentary species, as well as jurisdiction with regard to the establishment and use of 18 artificial islands, installations and structures on the seabed, drilling and tunneling, and other
19 rights as provided for in accordance with the UNCLOS, Republic Act No. 7942, otherwise 20 known as the “Philippine Mining Act of 1995”, and other existing laws and treaties.

21 SEC. 10. Adherence to Existing Laws. – Other rights of the Philippines relative to 22 its maritime zones and entitlements shall be exercised in accordance with the UNCLOS, the 23 awards rendered by the Arbitral Tribunal in Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA) Case 24 No. 2013-19, in the matter of the South China Sea Arbitration between the Republic of the 25 Philippines and the People’s Republic of China, handed down on July 12, 2016 at The Hague,

1 The Netherlands and other laws and regulations on maritime zones and entitlements of the 2 Philippines and international law.

3       SEC. 11. Delimitations. – Where the maritime zones defined in this Act overlap with 4 the maritime zones of a neighboring State, the common boundaries shall be determined by 5 agreement with that State in accordance with the relevant principles of delimitation under 6 international law, including the UNCLOS.

7       SEC. 12. Reciprocity and Mutual Respect. – The rights and privileges of 8 foreign vessels and aircraft in the Philippine maritime zones declared herein are recognized 9 under conditions of reciprocity and mutual respect. Vessels and aircraft of foreign States that 10 do not abide by, or are inconsistently with, the UNCLOS and international law shall not 11 be entitled to exercise the rights, or be owed the obligations, relative to the maritime zones 12 declared herein.

13       SEC. 13. Separability Clause. – If any portion or provision of this Act is declared 14 unconstitutional or invalid, the other portions or provisions hereof not affected thereby shall 15 continue to be in full force and effect.

16       SEC. 14. Repealing Clause. – All laws inconsistent with or contrary to the 17 provisions of this Act are deemed amended or repealed accordingly.

18       SEC. 15. Effectivity. – This Act shall take effect fifteen (15) days after its 19 publication in the Official Gazette or in a newspaper of general circulation.

Approved,
