MONDAY, AUGUST 19, 1991

OPENING OF THE SESSION

At 4:18 p.m., the Honorable Jovito R. Salonga, President of the Senate, called the session to order.

The President. Binubuksan ang pulong ng Senado.

NATIONAL ANTHEM

Aawitin ng U.S.T. Action Singers ang pambansang awit at "Bayan Ko", at pagkatapos ay pangungunahan tayo sa panalangin ni Senador Santanina Rasul.

Everybody rose for the singing of the national anthem.

After the singing, everybody remained standing for the opening prayer.

PRAYER

Senator Rasul.

BISMILLAH HIRRAHMAN NIRRAHIM,

Lord, as we go through the last chapter of our term of office, we are all the more mindful whether our contributions here in the Senate are truly being felt in the drive towards the alleviation of the plight of our people.

For one straight week, as torrential rains continue to deluge the whole of Luzon, most especially the Central Luzon area, vast lands were inundated by water, crops destroyed, and houses swept away. Certainly, the ranks of the poor, the sick, and the homeless will once again grow in number.

The yearnings of our people should be our first and primordial concern.

We seek Your guidance, O Lord, to open our hearts and set aside our pettiness that we may be able to focus our attention on the needs of our hapless people in the countryside.

* Arrived after the roll call

Touch us, O Lord, with Thy wisdom, and grant us the vision and strength to carry on the mandate and covenant with Your people.

WASSALAM.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE OF SENATOR OSMEÑA (Death Penalty Lobbying by Foreigners)

Senator Osmeña. I would like to rise on a question of personal privilege.

I just want the records to show that this delegation, which are here with us today, from Amnesty International, made up of Europeans, are lobbying for the death penalty.

Since many of our Colleagues have, in the past, been so sensitive about infringement of our sovereignty by foreigners, I think this is a beautiful example of our sovereignty on the issue that is domestic. The restoration of the death penalty is a domestic issue. The presence of these foreigners here lobbying us, accompanied by certain personalities, is, to me, a clear-cut manifestation of external, shall we say, interference in a domestic issue.
